

Benefits!

BECOME A MEMBER OF THE ALBERTA GREENHOUSE GROWERS ASSOCIATION TO REAP THE BENEFITS!

Educational Programs

- Green Industry Show & Conference sessions featuring speakers from across Canada and U.S.
- Production workshops throughout the Province
- Financial and marketing training seminars
- Applicators License Renewal credits

Your Information Source

- Timely newsletters with electronic access
- Industry surveys and analysis (Report free to members)
- Subscription to Greenhouse Canada Magazine
- Dedicated website
- Question & Answer forum
- Free member classified advertising
- Online retail map and Wholesale Buyer Guide
- Free access to the Crop Specialist (Dr. Mirza)

Your Voice in Developing Government Policy

- Natural Gas Rebate Program when in effect
- Disaster Relief Programs
- Taxation Issues
- Electricity Costs
- Provincial and Federal Policy and Advisory Committees
- Watching Farm status
- Foreign Labour Program
- WCB Classification

Research

- Specific issues that impact greenhouse production and marketing
- Government Agencies consult with the AGGA for advice on setting research priorities
- Direct impact on research through project funding and in-kind contributions
- Annually fund research projects submitted through Alberta Horticultural Foundation applications

Awards & Scholarships

- $500 AGGA Scholarship awarded annually to the daughter or son of an AGGA grower member
- Scholarships for an Olds College student in the Horticulture program
- 3 awards given annually to recognize people in the industry

How do you sign up for all of these wonderful Benefits? Fill out the application on the back of this page and mail it to:
Alberta Greenhouse Growers Association
200, 10331-178 Street
Edmonton, AB T5S 1R5

For more information please visit www.agga.ca